

BRATISLAVA 25th July - Faculty of Economics and Business Pan college successfully participates in the international Leonardo, whose aim is to expand educational systems in manufacturing organizations. FEP PEVŠ acts as the verifier training project funded by the EU.

Project of the Department is a professional organization Engineers Ireland with extensive experience in building and evaluating educational models in factories. The certificates are in Europe in the field of technical education and training of highly respected. This partnership of the professional and technical workplaces of Slovenia, Romania and Portugal.

On the Slovak side to verify the long-term project in collaboration with Matador Group, Inc. The final evaluation of the international expert panel of the model development and management of human resources of the company rated as a high quality, high current and comprehensive. Based on this evaluation recognized the Irish professional body Engineers Ireland MATADOR GROUP, as Quality, which officially handed over soon.

"The Contribution of the Faculty of economics and business in all parts of the project - from selecting manufacturing plant in terms of which project to certify to the final successful international evaluation and accreditation of a pilot venture. FEP Participation in the project in detail to allow interested employees to become familiar with first-stage environment, get to know the details of their production, marketing, and especially personal problems and goals. We have ideas that we want as far as possible be reflected in our educational and research projects and programs," summarizes Professor. Ladislav Kabat of the Faculty of Economics and Business PEVŠ.

The admission of the Faculty of Economics and Business in the international cooperation is proof of the recognition by the Faculty of their results in an international environment in the long term and strengthens. Project leaders were prof. L. Coat a doc. P. Molnár.